knowledge of geography and culture is also invaluable. The step of faith that we must make is the inspiration of Scripture (2 Tim 3:16). This establishes the boundaries for correct understanding of the Word. We also must seek to determine the true text. This discipline is called textual criticism. Lower criticism seeks to determine the author and date of the writing. So called ...

6. It is mere arrogance for us to try to judge the conduct of other peoples. We should adopt an attitude of tolerance toward the practices of other cultures. Although it may seem that these six propositions go naturally together, they are independent of one another, in the sense that some of them might be false even if others are true. In what ...

Dimensionalizing Cultures: The Hofstede Model in Context

British anthropologist Mary Douglas (1973) proposed a two-dimensional ordering of ways of looking at the world: 1. 'Group' or inclusion - the claim of groups over members, and 2. 'Grid' or classification - the degree to which interaction is subject to rules. Douglas saw these categories as relating to a wide variety of beliefs and social actions:

"The Science of Getting Rich"

The opening sentence of Chapter 1 of this timeless little masterpiece says it all: "Whatever may be said in praise of poverty, the fact remains that it is not possible to live a really complete or successful life unless one is rich." And once I had read it and internalized its simple knowledge, my own life immediately turned around. My television production business started to go from ...
