Parenting Bible Study Guide plus Streaming Video Andy Stanley 2023-01-31 For parents there exists a question that is always hovering in the background. Are we doing it right? Then just when we feel like we may be doing it right in one season, the season changes. They outgrow their shoes and their beds and we wonder at times if maybe they're outgrowing us. Eventually hormones flip the script. The question that hovered in the background for the first eleven or twelve years is suddenly front and center. We no longer have the luxury of wondering if we're doing it right. There are daily reminders that more than likely we're not. Eventually our kids assure us we're doing it wrong because their best friend's parents are doing it right. And, of course, their best friends are assuring their parents they're doing it wrong as well. So, are you doing it right? It's a terrifying question. It's terrifying because while we all come equipped with a rearview mirror, we don't have a reverse. We can look back and see what we should have done differently, but we can't back up and do it differently. Our mistakes are a permanent part of our parenting stories. Worse, our mistakes are a permanent part of our children's childhoods! In this six-session video study, Andy and Sandra Stanley will actually suggest an it... the it they're convinced makes all the difference. Because if you don't hit pause long enough to consider the direction in which you are parenting, you may wake up one day to the realization that you parented in the wrong direction. By wrong I mean, you parented in a direction you would not have chosen to parent had you stopped long enough to choose. The direction we choose, consciously or unconsciously, will in some way determine our children's destinations—emotionally, relationally, spiritually, as well as academically and professionally. You owe it to them to choose it ahead of time. Parenting is complicated. You want to get it right. To do what you have to do to determine your it. And that's what this video study is about. Designed for use with the Parenting Video Study (sold separately).

Parenting First Aid: Hope for the Discouraged Marty Machowski 2018-09-24 Parenting isn't getting any easier in the 21st century. And no matter how hard you work at parenting, every parent learns (sooner or later) that children have a mind of their own and make choices of their own. What do you do when you have tried as hard as you can to help your children and they still end up making the wrong choice? It's easy to become discouraged and burdened by our children's struggles. Marty Machowski, parent, pastor, and author, knows that from his own experience. Instead of giving you more work to do that will (falsely) promise you the desired parental outcome, Machowski offers devotions to encourage weary parents who feel overwhelmed with parenting, their children's choices, and the culture that wars against their souls. Instead of another to-do list, Machowski guides parents through twenty weeks of Scripture readings and meditations that will encourage parents to go to God with their struggles and trust him to be at work in their families.

The Lifegiving Parent Experience Sally Clarkson 2018-05-01 This companion resource to The Lifegiving Parent is intended for use as a Bible study and discussion guide in conjunction with the core book. Each chapter begins with a "Lifegiving Parent Moment" narrative with probing questions, then moves into a study of relevant scriptures and discussion of the lifegiving parent principle, and concludes with prayer suggestions. The book and guide together make a great 10-week study of how to become a lifegiving parent for your children.

Heritage Parenting R. Thomas Schwind 2015-02-14 Parenting looked at through the lens of Scripture and Christian faith. Christian parents want to raise children that love God and learn to appreciate and navigate life through the timeless truths of faith. The book contains end of chapter reflection/ discussion questions, a small group guide, topical scripture lists and other resources in the appendix. This book looks at four particular areas of parenting by Christians. First is the undeniable truth that young people leaving the family environment predominately wrestle with faith. It looks at why young people are not confident in the faith of their family and cites significant research to talk about that and how parents can counteract these causes of questioning faith. The second area looks at how Jesus trained the disciples to be world changers and ways in which parents can use the same common sense approach that Jesus did. Third, the book examines child development of intelligence, personality and morality. It presents how children grow and why their understanding of life is so different than adults. With this information, parents can communicate with their child and reach a whole new level of empathy and understanding. Fourth, The book presents a paradigm for examining your own family amid 7 facets (Pillars) of Christian family. The book does not tell you how you should practice your faith or your family but instead examines scriptural principles to help you understand your family and to intentionally raise Godly children. There is much opportunity for reflection and the spiritual depth of the content make this more than a book; it is a spiritual pilgrimage.

Parenting First Aid Study Guide: Hope for the Discouraged Marty Machowski 2020-04-20 As a companion small group resource to Parenting First Aid by Marty Machowski, this study guide reminds parents they aren't alone in their struggles, providing an opportunity to talk about their challenges and pray for and encourage other parents. Each of the ten chapters of Parenting First Aid Study Guide contain book excerpts, Scriptures for encouragement, and questions to help stimulate discussion and application exercises. Machowski reminds men and women to rest in God's sovereign ability to reach and rescue their children. Unlike many other Christian parenting books, this resource helps moms and dads find comfort and hope in Christ rather than relying on techniques or to-do lists that fail to deliver what they seem to promise. So many moms and dads hide their child-rearing struggles, but by sharing together and praying for one another in a small group setting, parents can find encouragement, support, and community as they learn to trust God together in the midst of hardship. Raising kids isn't getting any easier, especially with the introduction of insta-porn on electronic devices, the ease of access to drugs, and the ever-increasing blurring of sexuality. This study guide is for weary mothers, fathers, and guardians who are overwhelmed with their children's choices and the culture that wars against their souls. For moms and dads with small struggles or weighty parenting trials--such as children involved with drugs, sexual sin, and teenage rebellion--this small group guide offers a place to begin conversations with other parents; seek community, Scripture, and prayer; and remember they aren't alone.

Running with the Horses Larry Taylor, Ph.D. 2013-10 We all have great intentions when it comes to raising our children. We want them to succeed, and above all to surrender their lives to the lordship of Christ. As a father of four boys and a twenty-five-year veteran of school administration, I understand these goals. I also understand the busyness of daily life how days merge into weeks as hurried lifestyles spin out of control, leaving us wondering how our toddlers became teenagers. This book introduces you to a simple, biblically based plan for raising servant-leaders for Christ. Whether your child is eighteen months or eighteen years old, this book will guide you through the process of preparation for the race that awaits him in this world. We will walk through specific and practical things you can do to build a family plan. Being deliberate and focusing on creating depth in your child's faith is the first step to preparing him or her to run with the horses "If you have run with footmen and they have tired you out, then how can you compete with horses? If you fall down in a land of peace, how will you do in the thicket of the Jordan?" (Jeremiah 12:5).

Parenting from the Scriptures and Scriptures for the Parents Mark Lovis 2017-03-10 Teach children how they should live, and they will remember it all their life. (Proverbs 22:6, NLT) Most children will grow up and leave home with very little knowledge of where to find the answers to their questions. As a result, the family is likely to experience many years of struggle and frustration. This book will equip parents, pastors, counselors, teachers, Christian groups, church groups, and, most of all, children with the information they need to learn Bible principles. The Topical Guide will enable them to use the Bible as a tool to find Scriptures that will help them with guidance for specific problems and questions children may have. Part 1 is a Topical Guide divided into 101 categories listed from A-Z. Below are a few topics covered in this section: Afraid Angry Attitude Being Yourself Bullying Cheating Complaining Disrespect Do Unto Others Friends Gossip Greedy Hate Jealousy Lazy Learning Lying Meanness Pay Back Prayer Rewards Self-Control Sorry Stealing Stubborn Talks Too Much Temptation Wisdom and Understanding Worry There are also eight bonus sections in Part 2. God's wisdom is in the Bible, and this book shows you specifically where to find it for each of the 109 categories. This book gives parents the information they need to learn God's wisdom, so they can teach their family how to be the individuals God wants them to be. If a family is to experience a good life with minimal struggles, they must first acquire the right attitude; second, they must learn how to learn; and third, they must learn God's wisdom and understanding to guide them in making the right choices. All Scripture is given by God. And all Scripture is useful for teaching and showing people what is wrong in their lives. It is useful for correcting faults and teaching the right way to live. (ERV)2 Timothy 3:16

The Gospel-Centered Parent Deborah Harrell 2015-06-30 Our children are precious to us, so naturally we want to protect them and guarantee their safety and happiness. We want to get it right, so our children will be all right. But we live in a broken world where things don't always (or ever?) go as planned. Children make mistakes, and, if they are honest, parents know they make mistakes too. So it's easy for parents to live in fear, regret, confusion, and sometimes hopelessness about parenting and the children they love. Is there a better way? Can you learn to live by faith, to trust the God who made you and your children with their past, present, and future? How can parents live by faith as they parent their children? These are questions that are best answered in community. This ten-session small group resource will help parents apply the gospel of Jesus Christ to their families. Each lesson looks at parenting through the lens of God's grace for sinners (parents and children) and gives parents a gospel center to their parenting. Parents will learn how to live out the biblical principles of faith, repentance, and faithfulness to their calling as parents with their children. Each lesson is self-contained, featuring clear teaching from Scripture, and requires no extra work outside of the group setting. The self-explanatory Leader's Guide at the back of the book helps small group leaders with discussion questions and background material that clearly explain and apply the gospel truths from each lesson.

Bible Study Guide for Churches, Small House Fellowships, and Discussion Groups Richard Sogunle 2022-08-01 In my many years of attending Bible study, I have found that many who attend barely grow beyond the level of being fed the word of God. Many are stocked in the level of milk without the capacity to handle the solid word of God. The aptitude and zeal to understand and rightly share the word of God is absent in the greater percentage of church attendees today. Every good shepherd desire that their flocks grow in their spiritual muscle and be able to stand anywhere and anytime on their faith feet without being tossed to and fro with every wind of doctrine. However, due to various environmental and organizational challenges, a small group Bible study setting may be lacking in many churches. The members may attend worship services on Sunday and other times, and listen to the pastor's sermon day after day, but never have the opportunity to contribute their God-given ideas or ask questions that could strengthen their courage to share their faith with understanding. This book is designed to challenge believers in reading a passage of the scripture and equip them with spiritual-warfare weapon in memory verse during each Bible study session. The individual will have the opportunity to learn and discuss the weekly topic and questions that follow every introduction to the topic. The study guide is simply arranged to enable any believer or group of believers and families to use in any Bible study group setting. The study guide discusses various topics with supporting scriptural references to equip participants with practical knowledge and applications to their daily Christian living. Bible Study Guide for Churches, Small House Fellowships, and Discussion Groups is a must-have handbook for pastors, leaders of various Christian fellowship groups, and believers that will love to grow in their Christian walk.

Triggers Amber Lia 2016-02-03 Do you believe your struggle with anger stems from the wrong behavior you see displayed in your children? The knee-jerk reactions and blow-ups you're facing are often a result of a bigger set of "triggers." Some of these are external, like a child's disobedience, backtalk, or selective hearing, while others are internal, like an overflowing schedule, sleep-deprivation, or perhaps your own painful experiences from childhood. Triggers: Exchanging Parent's Angry Reactions for Gentle Biblical Responses examines common parenting issues that cause us to explode inappropriately at our children. Moving beyond simple parenting tips on how to change your child's behavior, authors Amber Lia and Wendy Speake offer biblical insight and practical tools to equip and encourage you on the journey away from anger-filled reactions toward gentle, biblical responses.
