World Civilizations Peter N. Stearns 2007 With 83 additional outline and four-color maps, World Civilizations: The Global Experience, Fifth Edition, Atlas Edition, helps students with geography, one of the most difficult aspects of World history courses for many. The maps are accompanied by review questions that call on students to identify important geographical areas and think critically about the connection between geography and historical events. The maps are on perforated pages and are organized by chapter so that they can be assigned easily and collected. The primary goal of World Civilizations is to present a truly global history—since the development of agriculture and herding to the present. Using a unique periodization, this book divides the main periods of human history according to changes in the nature and extent of global contacts. This global world history text emphasizes the major stages in the interactions among different peoples and societies, while also assessing the development of major societies. Presenting social and cultural as well as political and economic aspects, the book examines key civilizations in world history. World Civilizations balances this discussion of independent developments in the world's major civilizations with comparative analysis of the results of global contact.

The World's History Howard Spodek 2014-11-19 An Introductory Exploration of the History of the World The World's History encourages readers to explore the history of the world and the significance of this unique study. The past is not simply a list of events, rather the records of historic interpretations of those events. Because interpretations differ from historian to historian, the study of history becomes a pool of various narrations told from different perspectives. The World's History celebrates these differentiating values offering readers a rich, comprehensive, and challenging introduction to the study of world history and the methods and key interpretations of its historians. The World's History: Volume 1 covers Parts One through Five (chapters 1-13). The parts move progressively along a timeline from emergence of early humans to the present day encouraging students to analyze historical events and develop a grasp of the chronology of human development. Readers will gain an appreciation of the national and cultural origins of all their diverse fellow citizens. MyHistoryLab is an integral part of the Spodek program. Key learning applications include, the World History Video Series, MyHistoryLibrary, and the all new Writing Space. Teaching and Learning Experience This program will provide a better teaching and learning experience- for you and your students. It: Personalized Learning with MyHistoryLab: The new MyHistoryLab delivers proven results in helping students succeed, and provides engaging experiences that personalize learning. Emphasized Critical Thinking: Learning tools throughout the text help students to focus their learning on key material and becomes more critical thinkers. These features include: Learning Objectives, Key Terms, Turning Point Questions and chapter-ending What Difference Does it Make? discussions. Includes and Engaging Pedagogically-Driven Design: A new, cleaner design of box features and color type offers a more visually pleasing experience for readers. An eight part division of the material allows readers to master on a specific unit before progressing to the next. Provides Primary Source Documents: Readers will gain primary knowledge of historical events through Sources Boxes and Suggested Readings in each chapter.

History Gr11 L/b

The Origins and Course of the First World War 1905-1918 P Kenney 2020-11-26 This Study Guide is designed to cover the Section A of Paper 2 Historical Investigation: A1 the origins and course of the First World War, 1905-18, as part of the Pearson Edexcel International GCSE in History (4HI1). This is a period of history that deserves study. The First World War transformed the world in many ways. It changed societies; it brought down empires and brought about great advances industrialisation and technological advances. Warfare was also transferred with the introduction of tanks and aircraft in battle for the first time. The First World War was fought in Europe, the Middle East, Africa and also at sea. The conflict would not be formally ended until the Treaty of Versailles on the 29th June 1919. From the wreckage of the First World War a new Europe was formed. As a result of the First World War, the Empire of Austria-Hungary was dismantled, the Russian autocratic Tsar was overthrown and the Bolshevik Communists established the USSR. Germany lost land and was humiliated, sowing the seeds for the rise of Hitler and the Second World War. By the time the war ended on 11th November 1918 over 10 million soldiers had been killed and over 20 million were wounded. With the benefit of hindsight, it is easy to see how the First World War was inevitable. Over the preceding decades the Great Powers of Europe were all competing to carve up the rest of the world - and take as much of it for themselves as possible. The European Great Powers; Great Britain, France, Germany, Russia, Austria-Hungary and Italy all desired new territories to rule and exploit. With more than 20 topics covering the origins and course of the war, this study guide covers all aspects of the syllabus requirements, including the alliance system and international rivalry in the years 1905-14; the growth of tension in Europe, 1905-14; the deadlock on the Western Front; the war at sea and Gallipoli, and the defeat of Germany in 1918.

Church History Study Guide, Pt. 3 Randal S. Chase 2012-05-31 Church History Study Guide, Pt. 3: Latter-Day Prophets Since 1844. This volume is the third of three on Church History and the Doctrine and Covenants. It covers Church history during the administration of all of its Prophet-Prophets since Joseph Smith. It begins with the succession of the Apostles after Joseph Smith's martyrdom, the building of the Nauvoo Temple, and the trek to the west of the Latter-day Saint pioneers. We follow them through Iowa, Winter Quarters, and on to Utah. We witness the colonization of the state of Deseret, while the rest of the country suffered from Civil War. Then we follow events through the administrations of all of the 19th-Century, 20th-Century, and 21st-Century prophets from John Taylor to Thomas S. Monson. We become familiar with the early lives, missions, marriages, and callings of each of these prophets, seeing how the Lord prepared them for the particular time that they led the Church. We finish with a look toward the future as we await the Second Coming of our Lord. The cover features a beautiful photograph of the Salt Lake Temple, taken at dusk during the Christmas season from the roof of the Joseph Smith Memorial Building.
