The Results Fieldbook Mike Schmoker 2001-09-15 What is the single, most important event of the school year that affects school improvement? How do you measure school improvement? How can simple tools—already at your fingertips—work more effectively to improve student achievement in reading, math, and more? The Results Fieldbook answers these questions and describes in abundant, practical detail how five school systems overcame obstacles and achieved exceptional results for all their students. These schools focused on the proven core concepts that Mike Schmoker described in both editions of his first ASCD book, Results: The Key to Continuous School Improvement. Supplementing the five case studies, brief vignettes written by practitioners show how core practices—teamwork, the use of achievement data, and planning for measurable goals—made an immediate and profound difference in student learning at their respective schools. A close look at these school systems reveals the simplicity of school improvement efforts built around the still-overlooked and most potent force in improvement—collective, organized teacher intelligence. This book contains easily adapted processes and refinements that result from such teacher collaboration and all but guarantee measurable improvement. Tables, figures, and appendixes illustrate effective data-collection processes; and at the conclusion, a three-part synthesis of the best of these systems provides practical steps toward implementing this radically more effective approach to school improvement, starting with preservice education. The "People Power" Education Superbook: Book 16, High School Guide (Ged, Online High School, Internships, Student Exchanges, Summer Programs) Tony Kelbrat 2014-04-06 Generally, there are several ways to get a high school diploma: Going to school regularly during the day. Going to school at night then taking a GED test. Taking mail order/ internet high school courses. Studying on your own and taking the GED test. Take a high school equivalency test through a high school or local board of education and pass it. These are offered at some online high schools. Proving to college administrators that you have life experience and skills learned at work via taking tests which give you credits for college. As an adult, you can possibly enroll in high school with normal students, take night classes, correspondence courses at home or simply study on your own and take the GED tests. Check with the Continuing Education Office of your local Department of Education. A little known way to get your high school diploma is through the National External Diploma Program which doesn't involve any direct instruction.

Das Mädchen mit den blauen Augen Michel Bussi 2014-02-13 Ein Flugzeugabsturz – nur ein namenloses Baby überlebt. 1980. In der Vorweihnachtsnacht kommt es im verschneiten Jura zu einem tragischen Unfall: Ein Flugzeugabsturz, den allein ein kleines Baby überlebt. Doch auf der Passagierliste sind zwei Säuglinge vermerkt, beide Mädchen, beide drei Monate alt. Welches der Babys wurde gerettet? In einer Zeit, in der es noch keine DNA-Tests gibt, ist dies kaum mit Sicherheit nachzuweisen. In einem aufwühlenden Sorgerechtsprozess, den die Großeltern beider Familien führen, fällt trotz letzter Zweifel schließlich ein Urteil: Emilie Vitral hat überlebt, nicht Lyse-Rose de Carville. Achtzehn Jahre später entdeckt ein Privatdetektiv den Schlüssel zur Wahrheit, kurz darauf wird er tot aufgefunden. Zuvor aber hat er Emilie seine Aufzeichnungen zukommen lassen, die das Leben der jungen Frau von Grund auf verändern. Ausgezeichnet mit dem Prix Maison de la Presse. „Originelles Thema und emotionale Spannung bis zur letzten Seite.“ Eliane Girard, Prima. „Exzellenter Spannungsroman made in France. Durchwachte Nächte garantiert.“ Isabelle Bourgeois, Avantages.

Hearing Their Stories Mary Elizabeth Harris (doctor of educational administration.) 2012 This dissertation reports the results of a qualitative study conducted at a community college in central Texas. Through a grounded theory approach, participant stories were used to capture the experiences of adults with a GED who transitioned to and were persisting in college. Research questions used to guide the study were: (1) What factors contribute to the decision of adults with a GED to enroll in community college; and (2) What factors do adults with a GED report influence their persistence in community college? Eight students participated in the study through individual interviews. Student demographic information was reviewed to develop a thorough and accurate profile of the study participants. Also, three Recruiting/Advising Specialists were interviewed to capture their perceptions on the experiences of GED graduates in transitioning to and persisting in college. This research demonstrated the positive effect education can have in the lives of the participants and their families. After having little to no previous exposure to higher education, students developed a realization that education was an imperative in order to improve their quality of life. This realization was instrumental in the decision by the study participants to pursue a GED and transition to college. Through the assistance of intrusive advising by Recruiting/Advising Specialists, students were able to successfully navigate the college system. Support during GED preparation was established in the GED classroom and continued for most students throughout their transition to college. When in college, students were comfortable developing relationships with faculty in order to have a source of academic support. Eventually students had a network of student and academic support that gave them a sense of belonging at the college.

Liebe ist nicht genug - Ich bin die Mutter eines Amokläufers Sue Klebold 2016-09-22 "Am 20. April 1999 betreten Dylan Klebold und Eric Harris ausgerüstet mit Gewehren und Sprengstoff die Columbine Highschool. Dort töteten sie zwölf Schüler und einen Lehrer, verletzten vierundzwanzig weitere Menschen und nahmen sich dann selbst das Leben. Es war der schlimmste Schul-Amoklauf der Geschichte. Dylan Klebold war mein Sohn." 16 Jahre nach dem Amoklauf ihres Sohnes Dylan erzählt Sue Klebold von ihrem Ringen mit der Frage, ob sie die Tat hätte verhindern können, wenn sie nur aufmerksamer, liebevoller gewesen wäre. Sue Klebold ist durch die Hölle gegangen, aber an der Tat ihres Sohnes nicht zerbrochen. Sie hat einen Weg gefunden weiterzuleben und hofft, anderen Eltern zu helfen, das zu verhindern, was sie selbst nicht aufhalten konnte. Von einem ist sie fest überzeugt: Elterliche Liebe allein reicht nicht aus, um Kinder und Jugendliche vor den Folgen unerkannter psychischer Erkrankungen zu schützen. Ein starkes Memoir einer Mutter, der das Unvorstellbare passiert ist. Sue Klebold spendet alle Einnahmen an Forschung und Hilfsorganisationen für Opfer und Angehörige psychisch Kranker.

Igloo 49 Marjorie Farris 2007-01 A young boy from Texas grows up without ever knowing the strange circumstances that paired his mother and father and without even knowing who they are. At the orphanage where he grows up, he is told "If anyone loved you, you wouldn't be here." Small wonder that Buster Krebs finds little in his life to which he is attached, and small wonder that he will sell his soul to the highest bidder. When Buster Krebs becomes an employee of the Boone Army Depot in central Kentucky, his past life remains shrouded in mystery, but through a series of random and not so random events, he holds the fate of an entire county in his weather beaten hands. This novel warns of what can happen when do-gooders of all stripes converge in an explosive situation in which each promotes his own agenda regardless of right or wrong. Attitudes toward government, self-determination, and how a city sees itself as well as the emotional issues including the role of religion in politics are all presented through the eyes of a wide range of individuals who struggle with what to do with tons of nerve gas that are rapidly deteriorating and how and where they should be destroyed.
